

AQA AS & A Level Religious Studies

Course Overview

Religious Studies ensures pupils have a thorough understanding of diverse philosophical and ethical issues. The course features a variety of relevant and contemporary themes, such as life after death, animal ethics and the creation of the universe.

These topics help to inspire engaging classroom discussion and open pupil's minds to viewpoints that differ from their own. Pupils will gain critical and evaluative skills which are sought after by higher educational institutes and employers. The core religion studied is Christianity.
