Dear Parents/Carers

Prior to the half term break, I received as Chair of Governors of Trinity Catholic College, a request from our Headteacher Mr Coady to be released with immediate effect from his contract as Headteacher of our College.

After speaking at length with Mr Coady, I have reluctantly and with a deep sense of sadness agreed to his request and Mr Coady will not be returning to Trinity Catholic College.

It is important to stress Mr Coady's request to leave his post was entirely his own decision and was made for personal reasons.

I want to publicly thank Mr Coady for his tremendous dedication to and unwavering support for Trinity Catholic College in his time as our Headteacher and most importantly for the care and attention he gave to the needs of the young people he served.

Fortunately, Mr Coady leaves Trinity Catholic College in a good position with an expectation of strong outcomes for our students this summer and with a well-established and highly effective leadership team in school supported by dedicated and ambitious staff.

Our Head of School Mrs Granycome will be interim Headteacher and we will keep parents, carers and staff informed as our plans progress for securing new permanent leadership for the College.

I am sure you will once again join me in thanking Mr Coady for his service to Trinity Catholic College as we now move forward in the next chapter of our journey to becoming an outstanding Catholic school.

Yours Sincerely

Kevin Duffy
