Trinity Catholic College is a school that puts itself at the heart of the Catholic community, proud of its culture and its diversity. On September 1st 2018 we merged with Nicholas Postgate Catholic Academy Trust. It is at the leading edge of educational development and relentless in its pursuit of excellence. Students will find their experience at school exciting, demanding and enjoyable. Visitors to the school will find it welcoming, friendly and purposeful.

We are looking to appoint a talented and ambitious individual to join our existing team of experienced non teaching staff.

The successful candidate will:-

- Hold relevant qualification in Counselling, Psychology or Mental Health
- Hold or be working towards BACP
- Have experience providing high-quality counselling service to students experiencing a diverse range of emotional needs
- Provide support, guidance and advice to parents, carers and college staff on how to best support the wellbeing of students
- Observe confidentiality and support the college's commitment to provide excellent teaching and learning for all students
- Demonstrate a commitment to the college's safeguarding procedures and promotion of the welfare and personal care of students and staff
- Knowledge of local mental health services

Trinity Catholic College is a highly popular, oversubscribed 11 – 19 mixed school with 1400 pupils on roll including 160 sixth form students. The school has excellent accommodation and is very well resourced.

We welcome visits to the school; to arrange , please contact Amber Storey:
