

This Friday, 16th. November is BBC Children in Need Day. It is a non-uniform day at school and students throughout the school are also encouraged to wear a silly hat to help to raise money for this excellent cause. There will also be a wide range of other fun activities organised by the Head Boy and Head Girl.