

Discovery museum & Fenwick

Rainbow group went on a visit to Newcastle to explore the discovery museum and Fenwick's window. They all had a fantastic time looking at the lights and sounds of the busy city centre.

We have been doing a lot of work in our sensory room exploring lights, sounds and tactile objects. All of the pupils have responded well to the stimuli.

