

PSHE drop down days provide an opportunity to deliver targeted and high quality PSHE education to students, as well as, enable the school to access education and training from external agencies.

Drop Down Days at Denton Community College are also designed to compliment, secure and extend the PSHE provision offered within forms dovetailing with this curriculum and ensure the statutory requirements for PSHE education are met.