Student licences at home

As a licensed Serif School , students are eligible to purchase home copies of Serif at a reduced rate. And to make ordering even easier, they can now buy the latest Student Design Suite online.

How to order?

Order online

www.serif.com/education/ssdp

Pupils will need to enter your schools Serif reference number (overleaf) to qualify for the discount.

Ordering online provides pupils with the six latest Serif titles for just £45. Serif is forward and backwards compatible, but please note legacy versions may not support newer features. Individual programs at £10 or previous titles can be purchased directly from Serif or via the school.

Serif licences for pupils at Court Fields School

As your son/daughter uses Serif graphics software in school, you can now give them access to the same programs at home for just £10 a copy.

Work on school projects at home.

Serif student licences offers your child flexibility to transfer their work between school and home. An integral tool for high quality course work in all subjects, Serif software also provides powerful tools used in industry to give them valuable ICT skills for when they leave school.

Software your child owns outright.

With creative tools for photo editing, drawing, animation, video editing, DTP and web creation, the Serif Student Suite isn't limited to school project work – they can use it for personal interests, clubs, or even when they leave school.

Save £300 with Serif student licences.

Ordering online provides your child with all six latest Serif titles for just £45. Serif is forward and backwards compatible, but please note legacy versions may not support newer features. Older versions or individual titles at £10 can be purchased over the phone or by cheque. Each Serif software title will be provided on DVD.
