

In our Mass for All Saints we remembered the saints through the ages who have dedicated their lives to Jesus. The great saints show us how to live the Christian life; they are our friends.

Saints share their gifts and talents.

Saints show the world that they care.

Saints say that they are sorry.

Saints always put others before themselves.

Saints forgive people who hurt them.

Saints are friends with everyone.

Saints let God tell them what to do.

