

Department	Psychology
Year	10
Qualification	GCSE

BCHS Curriculum Map 2015-2016

Term
Autumn 1	Topic	Introduction to carrying out research	Types of experiments	How to collect samples	Ethical considerations	Learning – What is Classical conditioning	Research into classical conditioning	Operant conditioning	Exam preparation
	Assessment								Exam based assessment
Autumn 2	Topic	How to apply conditioning procedures to real life situations	Treating phobias	Social influence - obedience	Social influence - conformity	Social influence – deindividuation	Social influence – bystander behaviour	Social influence- bystander behaviour
	Assessment
Spring 1

	Topic	Social loafing	Social influence in the real world	Exam preparation	Sex and gender – the distinction between sex identity and gender identity	Psychodynamic theory of gender development	Research into the psychodynamic theory
	Assesment			Exam based assessment
Spring 2
	Topic	Social learning theory of gender development	Research into the social learning theory	Gender schema theory of gender development	Research into the gender schema theory of gender development	Aggression – what is aggression introduction
	Assessment
Summer 1
	Topic	Explanations of aggression	Case study – Charles Whitman	Psychodynamic explanation	Biological explanation	Exam preparation	Social learning theory	Reducing aggression
	Assessment					Exam based assessment
Summer 2
	Topic	Reducing aggression	Further research	Unit 1. overview	Unit 1 studies overview	Introduction to memory	Explanations of memory	Explanations of memory

			methods
	Assessment							