Book of the Month

Bodies of Light by Sarah Moss

Ally is intelligent, studious and engaged in an eternal - and losing - battle to gain her mother's approval and affection. Her mother is a zealous Evangelical Christian, keener on feeding the poor and saving prostitutes than on embracing the challenges of motherhood. In Victorian Manchester, Ally and her sister May grow up under intense pressure to live and work within the restrictions imposed on women. But as she nears adulthood, Ally is determined to be one of the first female doctors in Britain. (KS5)

If you're studying Politics, Sociology or History try 'Post-Truth' by Matthew d'Ancona - Welcome to the Post-Truth era - a time in which the art of the lie is shaking the very foundations of democracy and the world as we know it. Brexit; Trump; the rejection of climate change science; the vilification of immigrants - all have been based on the power to evoke feelings and not facts. So what does it all mean, and how can we champion truth in a time of lies and 'alternative facts'?

STUDENT BOOK REVIEWS! Children of Blood and Bone

'Tomi Adeyemi writes this book in a wonderful manner which makes the reader keen to read on. She enhances the magical community and is a wonderful author - this book is a mysterious tale of love and war.' ★★★★★ - Zeeshan Choudry
