Dear Colleague

University taster courses for sixth form students this summer - taster courses with places available below

The updated list of free university taster courses for year 12 sixth form students taking place this summer can be found below. I'd be grateful if you could inform your year 12 students that there are still places available on the university taster courses below taking place at numerous universities in and around London. Places are offered on a first-come first-served basis so please ask your students to apply right away

University of London Undergraduate Fair for prospective students on Wed 16 Sept 2015 - pre-register now

Please also ask your students to pre-register now to attend the free University of London Undergraduate Fair for prospective students which is taking place at Senate House, University of London in Central London on Wednesday 16 September, 10am - 6pm.

Representatives from Colleges of the University of London including Goldsmiths, King's College London, LSE, Queen Mary University of London, Royal Holloway and UCL (see list of participating colleges) will be available to answer questions and provide you and your students with information on their undergraduate courses and applying to their university.

There will also be a comprehensive talks programme, covering everything from studying in London, filling in your UCAS form and many subject-specific talks. Full details and pre-registration at informationdays.gradsintocareers.co.uk
