

The summer task for English Literature:

Write a detailed personal reading/analysis of the poem 'Eat Me'.

The emphasis of this is on your personal reaction to the language of the poem – I am after a more creative reading response than a formal essay.