Statement of Commitment to Safeguarding Children through Safer Employment Practice

Enfield Grammar School is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children, and safe recruitment of staff is central to this commitment. We will ensure that our recruitment practices are robust, and that our selection procedures prevent unsuitable people from gaining access to children. All adults who work with or on behalf of children and young people in our school must be competent, confident and safe to do so.

All posts working with children should be aware of, and share the commitment to safeguard and promote the welfare of children and young people when applying for jobs within Enfield Grammar School.

This commitment is expressed through the following requirements:

Recruitment

Failure to adhere to the following requirements means that an applicant will not be employed to work at Enfield Grammar School.

- Applicants will be required to undertake an enhanced DBS (Disclosure Barring Service) check if an offer of employment is made and will not be able to take up post until a satisfactory check has been received.
- Applicants are required, when completing an application for a post within the school, to supply full education and employment history since leaving secondary school, with explanations for any gaps.
- An applicant's personal commitment to safeguarding children and young people will be explored through the interview process.
- Successful applicants must show proof of identity, qualifications (if relevant to the post), along with various other pre-employment clearances before a firm offer of employment is made.
- Prior to taking up post, applicants will be expected to sign the School's Code of Conduct, which commits them to upholding the highest standards in public life, both in the way they undertake their professional duties, and in their personal conduct.

Employment

Failure to adhere to the following requirements may result in summary dismissal:

- To participate in induction processes, professional line management and annual appraisal, where the employee's ability to safeguard children, young people or vulnerable adults through professional involvement and personal conduct will be guided and assessed.
- To undertake mandatory training, including child protection training, as appropriate to their duties.
- To familiarise themselves with all relevant policies and procedures, produced by the school, including procedures for managing allegations against staff.
