Who processes your information?

Redmoor Academy is the data controller of the personal information you provide to us.

This means the school determines the purposes for which, and the manner in which, any personal data relating to students and their families is to be processed. J.A Walker Solicitors acts as a representative for the school with regard to its data controller responsibilities

In some cases, your data will be outsourced to a third party processor; however, this will only be done with your consent, unless the law requires the school to share your data. Where the school outsources data to a third party processor, the same data protection standards that Redmoor Academy upholds are imposed on the processor.

J.A Walker is the data protection officer. Their role is to oversee and monitor the school's data protection procedures, and to ensure they are compliant with the GDPR. The data protection officer can be contacted on 0333 772 9763.

Why do we collect and use your information?

Redmoor Academy holds the legal right to collect and use personal data relating to students and their families, and we may also receive information regarding them from their previous school, LA and/or the DfE.

We collect and use personal data in order to meet legal requirements and legitimate interests set out in the GDPR and UK law, including those in relation to the following:

- Article 6 and Article 9 of the GDPR

In accordance with the above, the personal data of students and their families is collected and used for the following reasons:

- To support student learning
- To monitor and report on student progress
- To provide appropriate pastoral care
- To assess the quality of our service
- To comply with the law regarding data sharing
- To safeguard students

Which data is collected?

The categories of student information that the school collects, holds and shares include the following:

- Personal information – e.g. names, student numbers and addresses
- Characteristics – e.g. ethnicity, language, nationality, country of birth and free school meal eligibility
- Attendance information – e.g. number of absences and absence reasons
- Assessment information – e.g. national curriculum assessment results

- Information relating to SEND
- Behavioural information – e.g. number of temporary exclusions

Whilst the majority of the personal data you provide to the school is mandatory, some is provided on a voluntary basis. When collecting data, the school will inform you whether you are required to provide this data or if your consent is needed. Where consent is required, the school will provide you with specific and explicit information with regards to the reasons the data is being collected and how the data will be used.

How long is your data stored for?

Personal data relating to pupils at Redmoor Academy and their families is stored in line with the school's General Data Protection Policy.

In accordance with the GDPR, the school does not store personal data indefinitely; data is only stored for as long as is necessary to complete the task for which it was originally collected.

Will my information be shared?

The school is required to share student data with the DfE on a statutory basis.

The National Pupil Database (NPD) is managed by the DfE and contains information about students in schools in England. Redmoor Academy is required by law to provide information about our students to the DfE as part of statutory data collections, such as the school census; some of this information is then stored in the NPD.

The DfE may share information about our students from the NDP with third parties who promote the education or wellbeing of children in England by:

- Conducting research or analysis.
- Producing statistics.
- Providing information, advice or guidance.

The DfE has robust processes in place to ensure the confidentiality of any data shared from the NDP is maintained.

Redmoor Academy will not share your personal information with any third parties without your consent, unless the law allows us to do so. The school routinely shares students information with:

- Students destinations upon leaving the school
- The LA
- The NHS
- The DfE

What are your rights?

Parents and students have the following rights in relation to the processing of their personal data.

You have the right to:

- Be informed about how Redmoor Academy uses your personal data.
- Request access to the personal data that Redmoor Academy holds. This would be requested under SARS (subject access request).
- Request that your personal data is amended if it is inaccurate or incomplete.
- Request that your personal data is erased where there is no compelling reason for its continued processing.
