Getting the most out of Sixth Form

Challenge – Challenge Yourself

- Level 3 is a challenge and is meant to be
- Various ways of working will vary
- Challenging work – in class and beyond
- Be prepared!

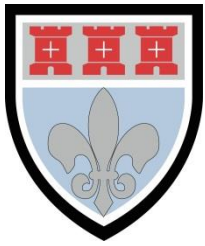

What's the best approach to lessons?

- Subjects you are keen to learn more about
- Subjects you are well prepared for
- Ask questions – it's often the sign of intelligence not weakness
- Proactive in lessons – notetaking, discussion etc.
- Keep on top of your work
- Read widely – go above and beyond the minimum

Homework and Independent Study

- 1 hour homework for every hour taught is the minimum homework expectation
- A/B grades will go 'above and beyond'
- 9 taught hours in Year 12 1 independent study lesson
- 10 lessons in Year 13
- Revise as you go – wealth of material – don't leave it too late

Period 6

- Part of Sixth Form timetable
- 3.10 until 4.10

Summer Homework

- All departments have set summer homework
- Must, Should, Could
- Prepare for first lesson back
- Available online

Getting the Most of out Sixth Form

- Wider Curriculum – your whole development
- Make the 2 years an experience
- What do you want? Where do you see yourself? What support do you need?
