Becoming a Barrister - Sixth Form Seminar with Inner Temple on 26th March

Are you interested in becoming a barrister, or would like to learn more about the profession? We are holding a Becoming a Barrister seminar at the Inner Temple on Tuesday 26 March, which will give you the opportunity to ask barristers and judges questions about their careers, to receive advice on how to become a barrister and to take part in case law workshops – you can even try on a wig and gown if you'd like to!

You can find out more and sign up here: <https://www.surveymonkey.co.uk/r/5YCX3CX> The deadline to sign up is Thursday 21 March.

The seminar starts at 11.45 and will finish at 15.45. Lunch will be provided, as will pens and paper. The dress code is smart casual.

The Inner Temple is one of the four Inns of Courts; the organisations responsible for some of the education and training of aspiring barristers. When you arrive you should head to Inner Temple, Crown Office Row, Temple, London, EC4Y 7HL. The nearest stations are Temple and Blackfriars. Please note we are not able to refund travel expenses on this occasion.

This seminar is the ideal opportunity to learn more about how to become a barrister and we would be delighted to see lots of you there.
