Learning and Growing Together

Monday, 15 May 2017

Dear Parents/carers,

The school is aware that social media (i.e. Facebook, Twitter) is a useful tool that parents use to communicate.

Parents/carers should be aware however, that any comments made on social media websites are considered to be in the public domain and they are therefore subject to various laws including the Malicious Communications Act, libel laws and protection from harassment legislation.

The school will not tolerate social media being used to make offensive or degrading comments against the school or its employees. In the event of this happening, the school will act in accordance with legal advice and also notify the Police. Parents/carers making such comments will be considered a risk to the safety and wellbeing of employees and prohibited from entering the school site.

If you have concerns with any aspect of your child's schooling at any time we urge you to raise these in a responsible way with their class teacher or if you feel necessary, Mr Bullock - Deputy Head, Mrs Snow - Assistant Head, the Key Stage Leaders – Mrs Milligan, Mrs Burton and Mrs Kennedy or myself. We will do our best to work with you to resolve any issues. Many thanks for your co-operation.

Kind regards,

J Harris
Headteacher
