What does he promise...

Rebuild the American Economy by Fighting for Free Trade

To rebuild our depleted military.

Federal investment of $20 billion towards school choice

Create 25 million new jobs over the next decade

Defend the Second Amendment of our Constitution. The right of the people to keep and bear Arms shall not be infringed upon. Period.

And...

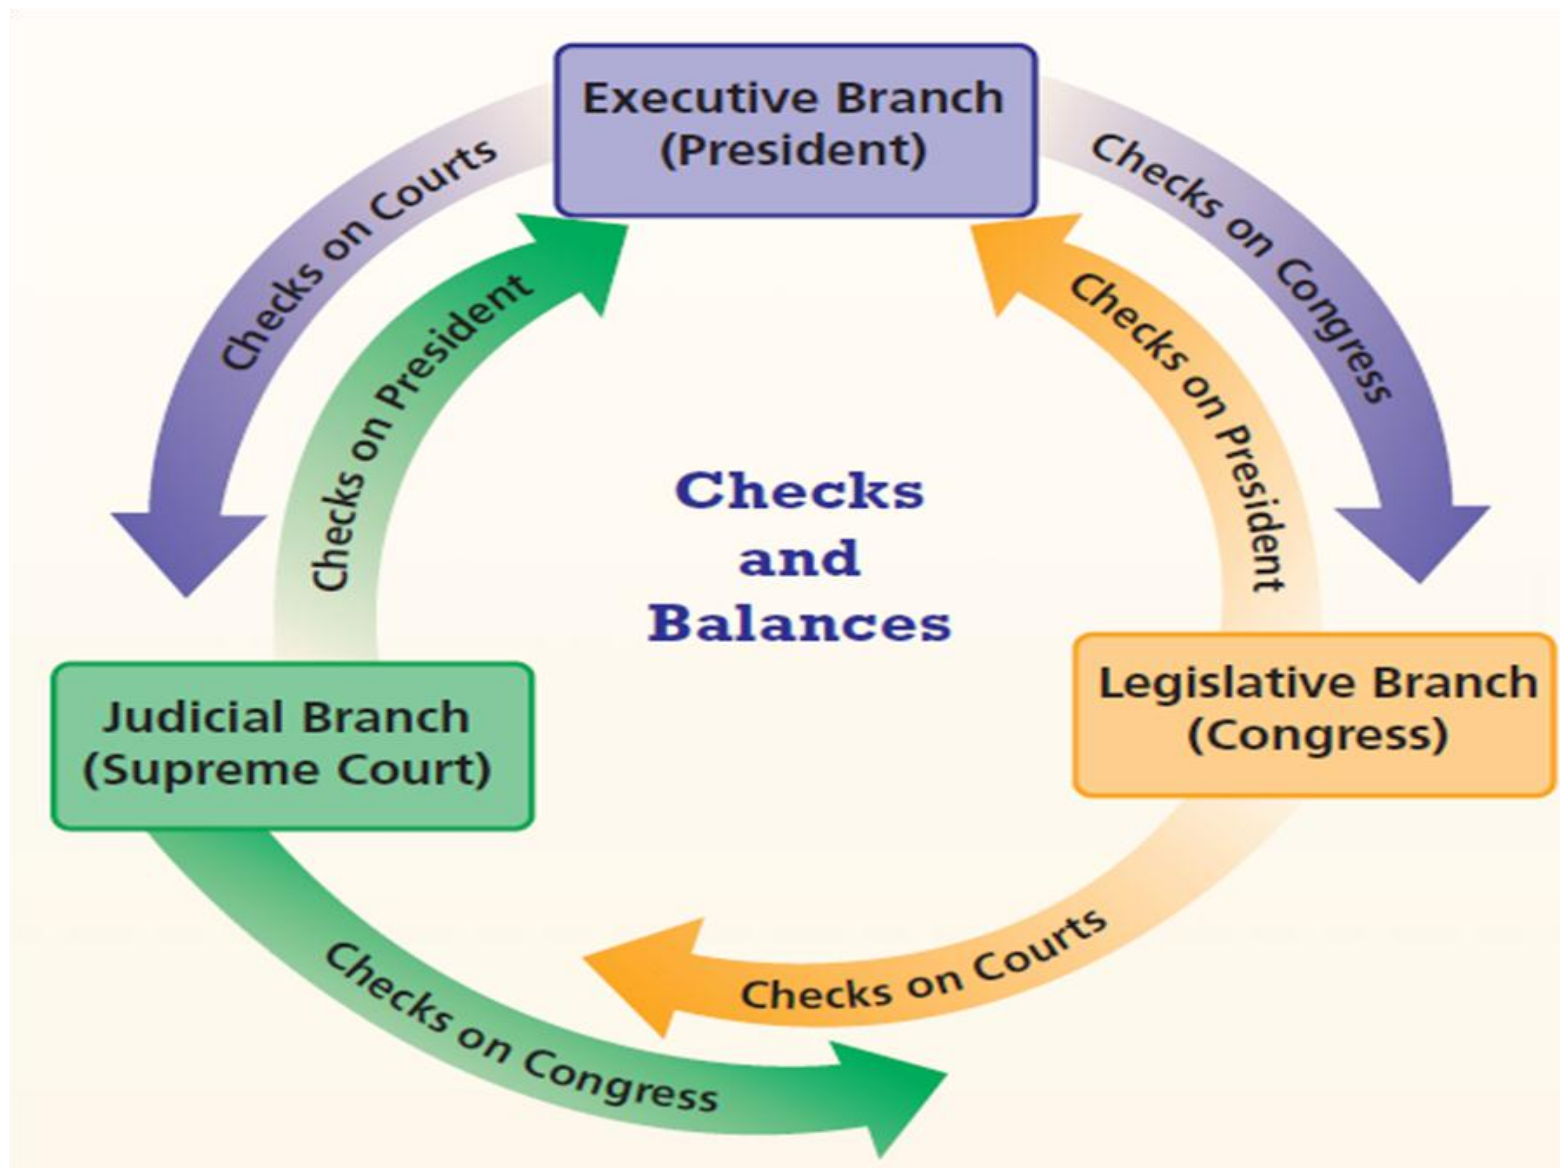

Prioritize the jobs, wages and security of the American people.

Protect the economic well-being of the lawful immigrants

Protect clean air and clean water. We will conserve our natural habitats, reserves and resources.

We will unleash an energy revolution that will bring vast new wealth to our country.

We will achieve a stable, peaceful world with less conflict and more common ground.

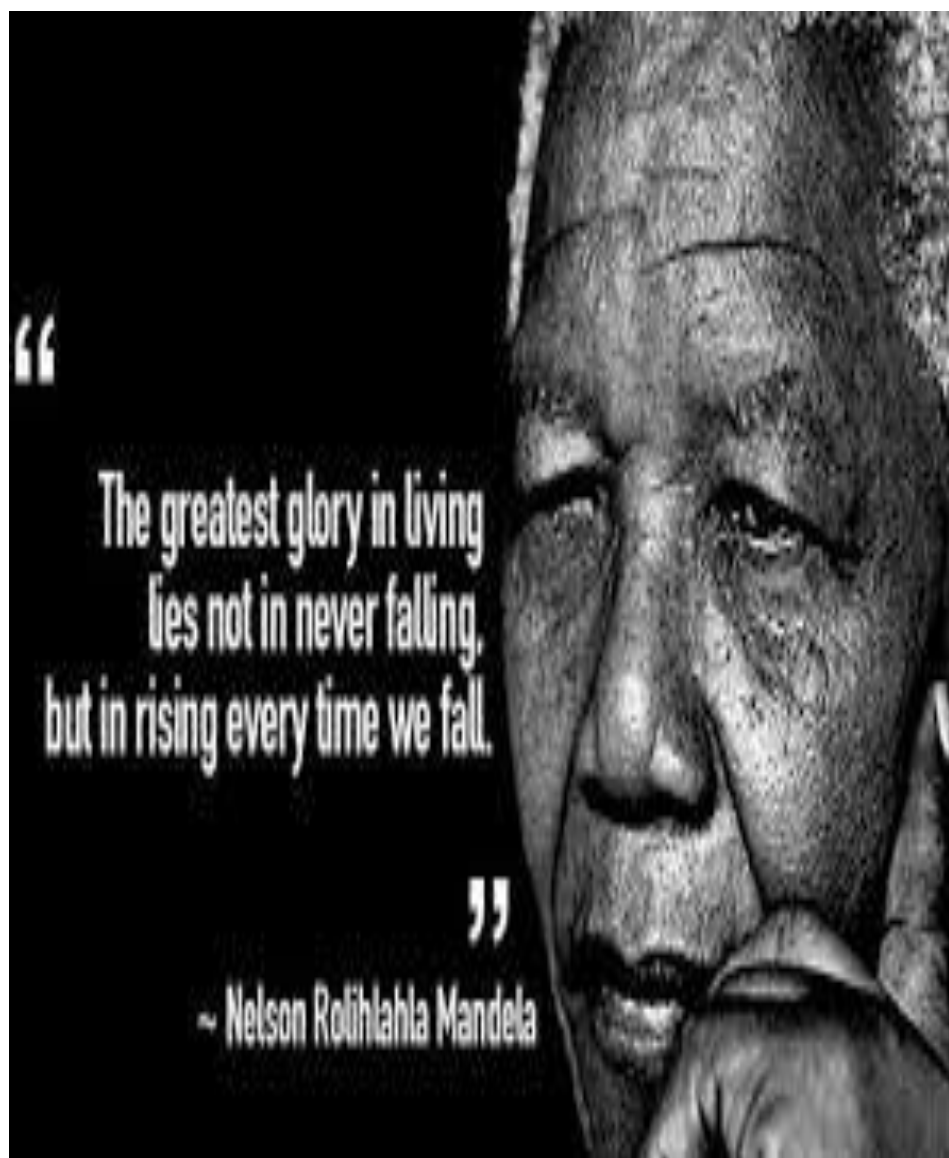

Checks and balances in the UK

Leaders can have a huge impact...

“I have cherished the ideal of a democratic and free society in which all persons live together in harmony and with equal opportunities. It is an ideal which I hope to live for and to achieve. But if needs be, it is an ideal for which I am prepared to die.”

On April 26, 1994, more than 22 million South Africans turned out to cast ballots in the country's first multiracial parliamentary elections in history. An overwhelming majority chose the ANC to lead the country, and on May 10 Mandela was sworn in as the first black president of South Africa, with de Klerk serving as his first deputy.

"Mandela's achievement was not only persuading a predominantly white sport to warm to him as a leader but to convince the black community to get behind a team which had only one black player"

- Chester Williams
