Dear Parents and Carers

Archdiocese of Birmingham Inspection February 2018

On 1 and 2 February 2018, St Edmund's Catholic Academy was visited by Lead Inspector Ben McArdle and Assistant Inspector John Farrell. It was a two-day inspection under Section 48 of the Education Act 2005 and St Edmund's was the first secondary school to be inspected under the new diocesan inspection framework. The inspection focused on the Catholic life of the school, religious education and collective worship.

The inspection was a great success. Six aspects are judged to be outstanding and three are good. The report from the inspectors is extremely positive, highlighting the strength of our Catholic learning community and gives pointers to a few areas to move to outstanding overall. The full report is on the school website under the About Us tab.

My thanks to Mr Katumba and his RE team, including Lay Chaplain, Mrs Ferris and Priest Chaplain, Mgr Mark Crisp. The inspectors took great note of our exemplary practice and I'm sure these will appear in other diocesan schools as the messages of St Edmund's successes spread. We used to be the best kept secret. Not anymore.

Our cohesive prayerful community is rich in faith with a strong sense of social justice. I couldn't ask for more.
