Nursing and Midwifery - What's it all about? The Fact Finders! - Monday 15th October 2018

Dear Parent/Carer,

There will be a day trip for a select number of Year 12 pupils to Wolverhampton Medical Institute - Building 11, New Cross Hospital, Wolverhampton, WV10 0QP. The trip will give pupils information on how to apply for a Nursing or Midwifery course and an insight to what life as a Nurse and Midwife is really like.

The day will involve sessions on the following:

- Nursing Careers
- Midwifery Matters
- Ward Rounds
- Getting a place on a course

As well as Interactive sessions on the following:

- Sim Ward - Clinical Skills Team
- University, What's in it for me?
- Annie and Archie
- Keep calm and call the Midwife

The pupils will attend as a group, along with Miss Dell. Students will need to meet Miss Dell outside the Emergency Department/A&E Services, New Cross Hospital for 8:15am. The event will finish at 4:15pm and pupils will need to make arrangements to get home from the event.

All pupils will be required to:

- Bring a packed lunch and drinks.
- Wear appropriate non uniform clothing.
- Any medication they may need (inhalers etc) clearly labelled and given to Miss Dell.

If you would like your son/daughter to attend, please complete the attached Consent Form and return by Wednesday 26th September 2018.

Yours sincerely,

Miss Dell,
Assistant Head of Year.

To be returned to Miss Dell - Pastoral Office - Room 131, St Edmund's Catholic Academy by Wednesday 26th September 2018.
