What is Cambridge National Sports Studies?
The Cambridge National Sports Studies is a KS4 qualification specifically designed for 14-16 year olds in schools to be taken alongside GCSE's. It is a vocational course that prepares students for work in the sports and leisure industry and gives them knowledge and insight into opportunities within these sectors.
What skills will I learn?
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Leadership</li> <li>• Knowledge of sports and sports performance</li> <li>• Coaching skills</li> <li>• Practical skills</li> <li>• Evaluation skills</li> <li>• Knowledge of Fitness</li> <li>• Knowledge of the sports industry</li> </ul>
Content of the course
The Cambridge Nationals in Sport Studies take a more sector-based focus, whilst also encompassing some core sport/Physical Education themes. Students have the opportunity to apply theoretical knowledge about different types of sport and physical activity, skills development and sports leadership to their own practical performance. They will learn about contemporary issues in sport such as funding, participation, ethics and role models, and sport and the media. Students will develop an appreciation of the importance of sport locally and nationally, different ways of being involved in sport and of how this shapes the sports industry.
How will I be assessed?
Contemporary issues in sport - Written paper 1 hour          Developing sports skills - Centre assessed task, OCR moderated.          Sports leadership - Centre assessed task, OCR moderated.          Sport and the media - Centre assessed task, OCR moderated.
Particular issues for this subject
This course is a combination of practical and theoretical work. You will be expected to participate fully in all practical lessons and apply yourself to all coursework assignments that you are given. You must be committed and organised to meet all deadlines set. You do not need to be the best sportsman or woman but you do need to have a keen interest in sport, fitness and health.
